

Motivating Students to be Independent Learners

The aim of the presentation is to provide students and teachers alike with practical ideas and tips to encourage independent learning. It addresses both theoretical and practical reasons why independent learning is an integral part of the language acquisition process. It stresses the importance of the teacher as a facilitator, responsible for guiding the learning process and equipping students with the skills and knowledge they need to be independent but ultimately encouraging students to take ownership over their own learning.